

Who we are

Career Source is a career resource center in Cambridge that provides a variety of employment services for both job seekers and businesses throughout the Commonwealth.

Career Source also maintains a satellite location at 4 Gerrish Avenue in Chelsea. Together the centers serve a widely diverse customer population, representing all professional and educational levels.

How we help job seekers

Each year, Career Source helps nearly 12,000 job seekers to get back to work by offering job search workshops, individual counseling, re-training assistance, and referrals to employers.

Additionally, Career Source provides personalized employment services to veterans and mature workers, and collaborates with many community and business partners to help unemployed individuals develop needed skills and find work.

"With your guidance, I gained the confidence to go after senior-level positions and proudly communicate the value of my experience." —Career Source customer, currently employed as Media Director at a Boston advertising agency

How we help businesses

For employers, Career Source offers recruitment assistance with personalized job matching, job fairs, recruitment events and more. In addition, we provide professional development training, and information on current employment laws and tax incentives.

We also offer outplacement assistance to displaced workers of companies that have had to reduce their workforce or close their doors.

"...Career Source has been a great help in finding candidates in the Boston area....We are always trying to diversify our staff to represent the communities in which we serve, and Career Source has been great helping us to spread the word." —Director of Recruitment, Conservation Services Group
